Isabelo Artacho Out in a Manifesto.

Advices Filipinos not to Play in 'Tother's Yard.

May Break Up the Dictator's Little War Party.

Junta Threatens Death, but Gen. Otis Will Intervene—Transport Sheridan Meets a Waterspout—A Blow at Railroad Charges.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Journal's Hongkong special says that Isabelo Artacho, rival of Aguinaldo and leader in northern Luzon, who escaped from the prison in which Aguinaldo had thrown him and reached Hongkong, has issued a manifesto calling on the people of his province to lay down their arms and support the United States.

This action may be the beginning of internal dissensions among the rebels that will end the war. Artacho denounces Aguinaldo, and declares that the latter is betraying his people and not representing the real sentiment of the Filipinos. The proclamation has caused a sensation among the Filipinos here. The Filipino junta, it is said, has condemned Artacho to death, but Consul-General Wildman has assured him of protection, and Gen. Otis has told him he will be guarded against any harm.

MEET A WATERSPOUT.

Transport Sheridan Has a Novel Experience—Prisoners' Appeal.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MANILA, July 24, 6 p.m.—[By Manila Cable.] The United States transport Sheridan, which sailed from San Francisco on June 25, with reinforcements for Gen. Otis, has arrived today. On July 16 a great waterspout was discovered directly in the course of the ship, and to avoid it it was necessary to make a detour of several miles.

Gen. Otis has received a letter, dated July 2, and signed by Charles Blanford and Fred Heppie, respectively, assistant engineer and third officer of the hospital ship Relief, who were captured by Filipinos off Paranaque May 30. The letter says the prisoners in the hands of the insurgents "are receiving excellent treatment, but the suspense of fearing the loss of our positions is terrible." The writers beg Gen. Otis to intercede for their release. Gen. Otis has taken steps in that direction.

Two Augustan friars, who had landed from a Hongkong ship, have been arrested here. It is said they had documents upon their persons showing they were agents of the Filipino junta at Hongkong, and that they intend to bear messages to Aguinaldo.

On board the transport Sheridan are Brig-Gen. Samuel B. Young and aides, Cos. B and H. Fourteenth Infantry, 239 enlisted men, and two company officers; Troops A and F, Fourth Cavalry; seven officers and 173 enlisted men; Lieut. Moss and twenty-five men of the Twenty-fourth Infantry, eight hospital corps men, and forty-one members of the Signal Corps, as well as 1248 recruits for the regiments already in the Philippines.

APPLIES TO OTHER ROADS.

Quartermaster-General not Satisfied With Railroad Charges.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 24.—The Quartermaster-General of the United States army does not feel inclined to pay the high rates demanded by the western roads for the transport of troops to the Pacific Coast. He has taken steps calculated to break up the railway combination. He first sent troops to San Francisco over one distinct route, ignoring all other roads. That plan failed to break up the agreement.

The Quartermaster-General has now gone on a different tack. He has learned that ships can be chartered at Seattle in which to transport the troops, and that the roads leading to that city west of St. Paul are not in the agreement. The original understanding was that all troops should be sent by way of San Francisco, and the asking of bids by way of Seattle is with the evident object of getting the Northern Pacific Company's roads to come to the aid of the Quartermaster-General.

TRANSPORT MORGAN CITY.

Arrives With Several Hundred Sick Men—Every Command Represented.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The United States transport Morgan City, which has been converted into a hospital ship, arrived today from Manila, having on board 476 sick and convalescent soldiers. The vessel started with 479, but there were three deaths on the voyage, those of Private C. J. Bobbs, Tenth Pennsylvania; Private Lewis Cook, Twenty-second Regiment, and First Sergt. Jackson, First South Dakota Regiment. All succumbed to dysentery, the disease with which most of the others were afflicted. All of those on board were ill when the steamer left Manila, but the removal from a tropical climate and the sea air so benefited the invalids that on arrival here only twenty-two were unable to leave their berths. Every command and almost every regiment is represented among the returning soldiers.

The officers on the transport, all of whom are in good health, are Capt. T. W. Moore, Twenty-first Infantry, in command; Maj. H. V. Cardwell, Chief Surgeon, U.S.V.; Dr. Williams, contract surgeon; Capt. Andrew Johnson, First Montana; Capt. D. Baldwin, First Co., Dakota; and First Lieut. H. A. Pratt, First South Dakota.

On entering the Golden Gate the Morgan City proceeded at once to the government quarantine station, though there was no infectious disease aboard, this being the custom with transports conveying invalided soldiers. After a thorough inspection of the ship the transfer of the men to the military hospital at the Presidio began, the United States tug Gen. McDowell being used for that purpose. Only a few of the troops are suffering from the effects of gunshot wounds.

CALIFORNIANS ABOARD.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Of the California regiment there were on the transport Private Louis H. Barreter, Co. G; Arthur H. Leston, Co. F; Charles G. Bartlett, sergeant, Co. C; and Frank P. Wagner, Co. I. Thomas G. Ward of Battery A, California Heavy Artillery, also sent home. All the Californians were suffering from dysentery when they boarded the transport at Manila, but have greatly improved.

THE TARTAR SAILS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The transport Tartar sailed late tonight, carrying away Gen. Joe Wheeler, two batteries of the Nineteenth Infantry Regiment and 175 casuals.

GEN. ANDERSON TALKS.

WANTS AMERICA'S GREATEST MAN FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

Thinks There Should Be a Division of Labor and That One Man Should Not Be Both Military and Civil Governor of the Islands.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 24.—"The greatest statesman in this country should be made Governor-General of the Philippine Islands, and the military authorities in the islands subordinated to him."

Brig-Gen. Thomas M. Anderson, commanding the Department of the Philippines, and to it we should bring the best talent we have. The Governor-General should be, first of all, a statesman. He should have the dictation of the course to be pursued, and the military representative should carry out the orders of the governor-General implicitly, but preferably in his own way.

"As it is, Gen. Otis is both civil and military Governor in the island. Exercising both of the functions, he is the most absolute and arbitrary ruler on earth, the Czar of Russia not excepted. The military power should, in my opinion, be vested in a man of civil power and must do the best he can. I believe that the task he is trying to perform is too great for any one man."

"The man at the head of the War Department at Washington should be one of good business executive ability and sound common sense. I have no intimation of any change in the administration in the department under Mr. Root. One thing is certain, however, so long as Gen. Otis is in command, the Philippines will be ruled by the military, and believe them to be men of truth and honor."

FOUR DEATHS.

Lieut. Moore Killed Himself—Dis-ease Takes Three Privates.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Gen. Otis has cabled the following deaths: Dysentery—July 15, MICHAEL CORRIGAN, Co. K, First Montana.

Suicide—July 19, JOHN L. MOORE, first lieutenant, Co. L, Fifty-first Iowa.

Intestinal tuberculosis—July 20, WILLIAM L. MURRAY, Twenty-first Infantry, Co. C.

Typhoid fever—July 21, FLOYD ALLEN, Twenty-first Infantry, Co. K.

ADDITIONAL CASUALTIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The War Department has received the following list from Gen. Otis at Manila:

Killed: FIRST CALIFORNIA INFANTRY. At Bolong, Negros, July 1, Co. E, WALTER T. SWEETIE.

NINTH INFANTRY. At San Luis, July 18, Co. K, EDWARD B. WEBSTER.

Wounded: FIRST CALIFORNIA. At Bolong, Negros, Co. E, CLAUDE W. HUFF, arm, slight.

Twenty-first INFANTRY. Near Morong, July 17, Co. C, FRANCIS GLANCEY, knee, moderate.

NINTH INFANTRY. Near San Luis, July 18, Co. K, SERGT. HERBERT L. HARTWICK, arm, slight.

NEBRASKA'S ADVANCE GUARD. [ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Adj. Gen. Barry and Col. Stark, representing the advance guard of the Nebraskans, who are to welcome the returning volunteers from their State, arrived here today. They conferred with Maj. Gen. Shafter, who informed them that he would be pleased to aid in making the proposed demonstration a success.

The men will arrive on the transport Hancock during the latter part of the month.

POOL OF DEATH

Men Drink from Corpse-Laden Stream.

Prospectors Die Like Sheep in Midst of Riches.

F. W. Petrie Brings a Horrible Story from Teslin.

Bodies of the Victims of Scoury Thrown in the River—Hundreds of Sick and Starving Straggle Along Edmonton Trail.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Like sheep, they were dying all around me," said F. W. Petrie, a young Englishman. Petrie is little more than a living skeleton, and as he sat in the hotel chair talking today, he looked as if he was not long for this world. Fifteen months ago he left for Dawson by the all-Canadian (Stickeen) route in perfect physical condition, a trained athlete. When asked if the trail was unhealthy, he made that remark, "Like sheep, they were dying all around me."

"We did not go through to Dawson, but stayed along Teslin River," continued Petrie, "with scores of others. Eighty miles up the river we came to a branch of the Teslin. There we found many men before us, prospecting. There was great excitement. Gold had been struck. The diggings were rich. We began prospecting with splendid results. We started into work. Suddenly, like a bolt from a clear sky, I was stricken with a strange malady, vomiting and purging. Then my companions fell ill."

"In going to other tents for help we discovered to our horror, that it was a camp of death. Miners were dropping dead at their meals or over their sluice-boxes, and few burials had taken place. Corpses were left on the ground or plucked into the water. There was the trouble. Miners had died of scurvy, and their bodies had been rolled into the river near the diggings. We had been drinking from an almost motionless stream, and the putrid water had poisoned us."

"I was delirious for days. I cannot remember the names of those who perished. I can only remember that awful pool of death. A dank, foul, corpse-buried stream that tainted the air we breathed. One of our party, who was a crank on pure water, and had been boiling all he drank with tea, escaped ailment. He guided us back from the poisoned pest hole to a mountain stream, and there froze to death."

"On our way we came to a cabin with three dead bodies in it, but we were so beside ourselves that we did not stop to investigate. All were dead but us. Death was everywhere. It was a camp of dead men. How we reached our next station I do not know. I remember we were hailed by mounted police, given pure water and wholesome food and tenderly nursed until we were able to reach the coast and board the Rosalia for Vancouver.

"Near that reach of Teslin River miners' trains are strewn around, how many, I don't know. Perhaps a hundred miners' bodies are rolling in the stream or rotting in the sun, and the gold is there yet. Some day the diggings will be known as among the richest of the Klondike country."

EDMONTON'S AWFUL TRAIL.

Fifty-seven Survivors, Including Los Angeles Men, Return.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WRANGEL (Alaska), July 20.—[Wired from Seattle, July 24.] The Stickeen River steamers Strathcona and Casca arrived yesterday with fifty-seven survivors of the Edmonton trail to Dawson. The unfortunates had been on the trail nearly two years, and related tales of hardship that demonstrated the non-feasibility of both land and water routes overland.

Under orders from the Canadian government, the Hudson Bay and other trading companies have sent out relief parties to bring in the several hundred sick and starving still struggling along the Laird and Pelly rivers. During the past winter it is estimated that fifty died of scurvy and as many more were drowned, while others returned to Edmonton.

Strong language is used in decrying the misrepresentations sent to newspapers by agents of the transportation and trading companies operating at and above Edmonton, as well as Canadian officials who recommended the route as a practicable one. The majority of the survivors are without funds. The majority are American citizens, and the local authorities are notifying the Washington officials of their destitute condition.

Among the returning survivors are O. L. Jones, G. Conner, Los Angeles, Cal.; L. Stevens, San Francisco; J. P. Mansfield, Los Angeles; J. N. Hamer, Los Angeles; W. Dick, Los Angeles; S. L. Shannon, California.

UNFAITHFUL INDIAN GUIDES.

Desert Their Charges With Fanciful Tales About Cannibals.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE (Wash.), July 24.—A Times special from Vancouver, B. C., says that C. R. Maltby, who arrived here yesterday from Dawson, was fifteen months on the Edmonton route. With about one hundred other prospectors he wintered at Wind City. When he left in January sixteen men were sick with scurvy. He heard in March that Dr. Mason of Chicago and W. Gouchie, son of a Chicago banker, were dying.

There were about fifty men stranded there, scurvy-stricken and frozen. E. Harrison of Hamilton had both feet frozen, and they were amputated at the ankles. Two Russians named Borrmann, from California, were dying with scurvy. They were living on the siftings of sour flour only. J. Patterson, son of Lieut.-Gov. Patterson of Manitoba; J. Coatsworth, a Chicago lawyer, and Cecil Merritt, a Toronto lawyer, were also stranded in Wind City in March.

All would have been well if the Indian guides could have been induced to navigate the route beyond the treacherous Wind City, but there they stopped, saying that savages, ten feet high, roamed through the mountains and crushed men between their thumbs and fingers and ate them up. The Indians reported several parties lost in the mountains. These men never heard of it.

It was after the Indian guides left these men that they strayed into the section of the country where there was no fuel, and there froze to death. The parties quarreled among themselves, and owing to uncongeniality and division of provisions, they took different routes. Many remnants of parties were lost in this way, for in their anger they left the Indian guides with the main portion of the party, and

One Death Results from Railway Trouble.

Suburban Car is Blown Up by the Strikers.

Gov. Roosevelt Takes an Interest in the Trouble at New York—Contaminates in the Metropolis Out. The Wallace, Idaho, Cases.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLUMBUS (O.) July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In response to a telegram from Mayor Farley of Cleveland, Adj.-Gen. Axline this afternoon ordered seventeen companies of infantry in different parts of the State, with instructions to the commanders to hold the companies ready to proceed to Cleveland at a moment's notice. The total strength of the companies is about 850 men. If they are sent to Cleveland the Adjutant-General will go with the troops and assume personal command, at the request of the Governor.

The companies ordered include five of the Eighth Regiment, known as the "President's Own" during the recent war, and of which Lieut.-Col. Dick was an officer. The State officials are keeping close watch of the Cleveland situation, and can muster the entire military force of Ohio on short notice.

FIRST DEATH RECORDED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CLEVELAND, July 24.—The day has failed to bring any relief to the strike situation, which is regarded as serious. The State Board of Arbitration has practically abandoned its efforts to conciliate the strikers and their former employers. The resentment of the conductors and motormen who quit work, and the more turbulent spirit of their sympathizers is checked by the presence of the police and militia.

In the death of Henry Cornwell, killed by a bullet fired by Ralph P. Hawley, a conductor on the Broadway line, is recorded the first fatality of the strike. Shortly after noon Hawley's car was approaching the Broadway street car when it was beset by a crowd of men and boys. Cornwell, the nineteen-year-old son of a butcher, was astride a horse and rode to the side of the car, keeping pace with it for some distance. Various stories are told as to what passed between the horse and the boy, but the mob was suddenly called to its senses by the sight of Hawley, who jumped to the street and started in pursuit of Cornwell. The latter, closely followed by his pursuer, turned up Perry street. At Woodland avenue the latter pulled his revolver and fired. His victim fell with a ghastly wound in his left temple, and died soon after being removed to the hospital.

The conductor was arrested and taken to the station, where a charge of murder was entered against him. When the car returned, in charge of another man, this time laden with police, thousands of people were crowded around the fatal spot. The track was blocked and the car was bombarded with stones, bricks and sticks of wood. The police managed by dint of using their clubs to clear the way, after a delay of about half an hour.

The police believe they have caught the man who placed nitro-glycerine on the track last night on Euclid avenue. Matthew Robinson, who was seen at 2 o'clock last night, driving a horse and buggy said to resemble the one in the mysterious wreck, has been placed in a cell. Robinson claims to have possessed the rig masterless and took possession, intending to deliver it to Charles Steinmetz, a deliveryman, by whom Robinson is employed. Mr. Steinmetz informed the police officers that he rented the outfit last night to a man whom he identified vaguely as having a duck moustache.

A report was made of the wrecking of a Euclid-avenue car was attempted last night, by strikers or their sympathizers, in Brooklyn, a suburb of Cleveland. The car was speeding south near Helm avenue, and, besides the motorman and conductor, a guard, successfully ran against some missiles thrown from the roofs of houses, and also ran into a can of nitro-glycerine, which exploded with terrible force. The rear platform was torn off and the flooring wrenched from its fastenings. The crew was not injured, but emerged from the shattered ruins with their pistols drawn, and began firing at what they thought were men crouching, as if to hide themselves behind a small bill-board. The explosion was the signal for renewing the attack on the houses, and the men, besides the motorman and conductor, a guard, successfully ran against some missiles thrown from the roofs of houses, and also ran into a can of nitro-glycerine, which exploded with terrible force. ## Tenth Ohio Infantry and L'Overture Rifles.

With the addition of these organizations the military force to cope with the strike now numbers 800 men, the city's entire military force. Next will come the call for State troops. Mob violence will be suppressed at any cost. If 800 troops are not sufficient the Governor will be asked for more without delay.

About 9 o'clock last night a suburban car was blown up between Wilshire and Wiloughby, about fifteen miles east of Cleveland. The outrage was not reported to the Cleveland police until this morning. The car was on the Painesville line, and was west-bound. It was well filled with passengers, the majority of whom were from the city. The passengers were badly shaken up, and made a rush for the doors.

Among the passengers was Mrs. R. A. Herbert of this city, and her nine-year-old daughter, Dorothy. The latter sustained a severely cut hand, caused by flying glass. A young woman, whose name could not be ascertained, was injured in a similar manner.

After the car had been examined by the crew it was found that the injuries were not sufficient to prevent its being run at a very slow speed, and it was taken through to East Cleveland.

Burke were severe, the evidence having shown that disguises were unnecessary. Hawley likened conditions here to the day of the Molly Maguires in Pennsylvania, when strong alibis could be procured for any one arrested. He spoke for two hours explaining that the State was making no fight against labor organizations, when conducted for lawful purposes, believing that the right to organize was the privilege of laboring men, but only fought organizations like those here, which were only for criminal purposes.

Robertson, followed, speaking for about an hour before court adjourned, mainly on the conditions here, and how all mine operators paid the same scale of wages, except the Bunker Hill company, who paid three and a half cents only paid less wages, but invited trouble with the unions by discharging all union men from their mines when the State was making no fight against laboring men, but only fought organizations like those here, which were only for criminal purposes.

SAW SAXTON SHOT.

STORY OF A BOY WHO IS HELD BY CHICAGO AUTHORITIES.

SOLDIERS CALLED OUT.
[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
CLEVELAND (O.) July 25.—A special to the Times from Columbus says that Adj. Gen. Axline, shortly after midnight, received the following message: "Second Regiment at once."

The Columbus regiment was at once called to assemble and reached Cleveland early this morning.

NEW YORK QUIET.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 24.—President Roosevelt of the Transit Company said today: "Our lines are running on full schedule time. Many of our old men have come to the company, and are asking to be reemployed. We are willing to reinstate those whose record prior to and during the strike was faultless."

ROOSEVELT INTERESTED.
[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 24.—Gov. Roosevelt, it is said, is taking personal cognizance of complaints that have been made by street-car employees about the alleged wholesale violation of the ten-hour law by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company. The Governor is not pleased with the way overtures of the Board of Mediation and Arbitration have been received by the companies, and he has requested the board to make an investigation into the alleged violations. The companies, when their employees complained and Messrs. DeLoach, Gilbert and Worcester, members of the board, offered their services, declared that there was nothing to arbitrate. The result was that there were no strikes, considerable disorder and talk of calling out the National Guard.

The Governor, it is said, is of the impression that the companies are violating the ten-hour law. He does not intend to compel them to arbitrate, but if the law is being violated he desires that this fact be known, and as soon as the additional deputy factory inspectors take office they can look after the companies. The Governor said he was very likely to be heard from on this subject if the situation is as bad as the strikers have painted. He believes in private law, but in corporations, in consideration of their corporate rights. But no street railway that violates the law, and doing so, brings on a strike, is in a bad way. A very strong claim for extraordinary protection, in the Governor's opinion.

COAT-MAKERS STRIKE.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 24.—It was said at the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Tailors today that between 5000 and 6000 coat-makers in New York City struck this morning. The strike of the coat-makers has necessarily thrown out the basters, trimmers, etc., as they have no coats to work on. The strike seems to have been precipitated by the pressers, to the number of 100, who last week made a demand for piece work, ten hours a day and 20 per cent. increase in the scale. The coat-makers are opposed to the piece work system, and they are at cross purposes with the pressers. Harry Gillen, secretary of the Coat-Makers' Union, said that the coat-making shops in Greater New York had practically stopped work. By striking, the coat-makers, it was said, could force the pressers to desist from their demands, particularly as to piece work.

WIDE-AWAKE MANAGER.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

DENVER, July 24.—The attempt to reopen the Globe smelter on the old ten and twelve-hour schedule has failed. The men demand an eight-hour day, but have pledged themselves to abide by the decision of the State Board of Arbitration as to hours of labor and wages. The examination of witnesses before the State Board of Arbitration continued today. Several smelter employees testified.

MANAGER OF SMELTING COMPANY QUESTIONED THE MEN CLOSELY, WITH A VIEW TO SHOWING THAT THE CHARGE OF UNFAIRNESS MADE AGAINST SMELTER WORK WAS NOT WELL FOUNDED, AND DISPLAYED PAY CHECKS OF ONE OF THE BADLY "LEADED" WITNESSES, SHOWING THAT TO HAVE BEEN CASHED BY SALOON-KEEPERS. HE ALSO SHOWED THAT THE LAST MONTH THE SMELTER RAN TO PROVE THAT THE MEN AVERAGED OVER TWENTY-FOUR DAYS OUT OF A POSSIBLE TWENTY-NINE.

MESSENGER BOYS STRIKE.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 24.—About two hundred messenger boys employed by the Postal Telegraph company struck today. The offices of the company most affected are in the financial district.

ARRESTED STRIKERS FREED.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 24.—The twenty-one trolley strikers arrested in Brooklyn on the charge of having been implicated in the dynamite explosion on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit last week, were discharged, there being no evidence connecting them with the explosion.

EVIDENCES OF CONSPIRACY.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WALLACE (Idaho), July 24.—In the strike cases today, Attorney Hawley occupied the morning session with an argument on the law in its application to Corcoran's case, and in the afternoon spoke for two hours detailing the evidence. The most of the time was taken up with the evidence of conspiracy involving the Coeur d'Alene miners and also Corcoran, as an officer and leading spirit in the Burke and Central unions.

Hawley brought out clearly how uncontradicted evidence showed that all four unions were moving in harmony, making connections with each other, and the movement was being directed along-line, throwing-out of the strikers and leaving a reserve party to bring powder when the mill was captured. The strikers on the people in

Burke were severe, the evidence having shown that disguises were unnecessary. Hawley likened conditions here to the day of the Molly Maguires in Pennsylvania, when strong alibis could be procured for any one arrested. He spoke for two hours explaining that the State was making no fight against labor organizations, when conducted for lawful purposes, believing that the right to organize was the privilege of laboring men, but only fought organizations like those here, which were only for criminal purposes.

Robertson, followed, speaking for about an hour before court adjourned, mainly on the conditions here, and how all mine operators paid the same scale of wages, except the Bunker Hill company, who paid three and a half cents only paid less wages, but invited trouble with the unions by discharging all union men from their mines when the State was making no fight against laboring men, but only fought organizations like those here, which were only for criminal purposes.

After the car had been examined by the crew it was found that the injuries were not sufficient to prevent its being run at a very slow speed, and it was taken through to East Cleveland.

Among the passengers was Mrs. R. A. Herbert of this city, and her nine-year-old daughter, Dorothy. The latter sustained a severely cut hand, caused by flying glass. A young woman, whose name could not be ascertained, was injured in a similar manner.

day were 430, making the total 4267. Col. Pettus's regiment, the Thirty-first, leads, with 947; Col. Bell's, the Twenty-seventh, with 824; Col. Rice's, the Twenty-sixth, with 566; Lieut. Col. Leonard's, the Twenty-eighth, with 504.

ROBBED FIGHT DETAILS.
Gen. Otis's Telegram to War Department Made Public.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, July 24.—The War Department today made public the telegram received yesterday from Gen. Otis giving fuller details of fight with the robber band on the island of Negros. "Campaigns against mountain robber bands, Negros, more successful than reported. Byrne, with his seventy men, killed one-third of the 450 assembled, including their leader, a Spaniard or Spanish mestizo. Pursuit then made by Lieut. Evans and detachment of Sixth Infantry, who killed three and captured one of the robbers; captured 100 dead stock, many spears and bolos, large quantities provisions and destroyed one hundred huts. The two casualties in Byrne's fight are Private David S. Anderson, killed; Albert B. Jerkes, slightly wounded; both Co. K.

REVENUE FOR HORSES.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 24.—It is the intention of the War Department to send all cavalry horses to the Philippines via Alaska and Nagasaki, so that they may be taken off the ships at both these places and given a rest during the long voyage.

ONE-THIRD ENLISTED.
Provisional Army Expected to Be Made Up in a Fortnight.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
NEW YORK, July 24.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that reports received by Adj. Gen. Corbin, from the colonels of the new volunteer regiments, show that about one-third of the provisional troops have been enlisted. The adjutant general, falling-off in recruiting Friday, but the returns for Saturday showed an increase, bringing the total up to more than 4500. Two regiments, Col. Pettus's and Col. Bell's, are more than two-thirds full. The regular recruiting officers will begin active work this week, independently of the recruiting stations, and from reports, Gen. Otis will expect to believe that the remaining 10,000 men will be secured within a fortnight.

The authorities are building great hopes for the new army, which will have been organized in a short period, and whether it will be required in the Philippines or not, it will be a part of the regular military establishment. Even if it is made soon, it is estimated by officials that with the new dependencies, this government will require a standing army of at least 80,000 men, which will be the strength of the regular forces and the provisional army.

It is largely for this reason that the President determined to appoint only men with military records to officer in the new regiment. The politicians were given to understand that they must confine themselves to men in the regular or volunteer army, whose military records were without blemish. Even if Gen. Otis succeeds in bringing peace before the end of the rainy season, part of the new provisional army, at least, will probably see service in the Philippines. As soon as the war ends, the men now in the islands will be entitled to come home for good. This is equally true of the soldiers stationed in Cuba, Porto Rico and Hawaii.

CAVALRY TROOPS SELECTED.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The War Department has ordered Troops A, C, D, E, F, K, L, and M, Third Cavalry, to proceed to Seattle to be embarked for the Philippine Islands. These troops go from the following posts: Fort Meyer, Va.; Fort Ethan Allen, Vt.; Jefferson Barracks, Mo.; and Fort Sheridan, Ill. Each of the troops for the Philippines is to be recruited to 120 men by the transfer of recruits from San Francisco.

HOPES FOR DEFEAT.
HOKE HAS "SPOKE" AS HE FEELS ABOUT THE WAR.

Ex-Secretary Says Fighting in the Philippines Would Stop if United States Soldiers Would Avow an Intention to Leave the Islands. Challenges the President's Atlanta Speech.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
NEW YORK, July 24.—A special to the Times from Washington says that ex-Secretary Hoke Smith was interviewed on the subject of the campaign in the Philippines and said: "Nine-tenths of the people in our section are opposed to continuing the war. The American people are already sick and tired of the slaughter going on there. I am not in favor of having our troops leave the islands with an armed force pitted against them, but it will not be necessary. If we could show our intention of leaving the islands to the natives and abandoning our attempt at sovereignty, the fighting would stop at once. Then, after we had assisted in establishing a government, if the natives so wished, our troops could properly be withdrawn. The most President McKinley has done is to wage solely upon the issue of the war, the opposite candidate will carry the country. 'Insurrection' seemed to displease Smith, who said: 'There is not an insurrection. There is simply an invading army trying to conquer a spirited people, and while we may, as possible, as I believe and hope, to put them down. We will no sooner think we have done it than there will be another outbreak.'"

"President McKinley entirely misunderstood the sentiment of our people on the question when he visited the South. He made a speech in Atlanta before the great throng, in which he asked the citizens if they wanted to see our soldiers turn their backs on the American flag in the West, and they answered no. What he really wanted to say when the question was put in that way, we can leave the Philippines without leaving the flag or a man running away."

Pensions for Californians.
WASHINGTON, July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Pensions were granted to Californians as follows: Original, William A. Ralston, major, 38; George L. Stoddard, soldiers' home, Los Angeles, 36; Charles L. Metzger, Alameda, 38; original widows, etc., Sarah Johnson, Azusa, 38.

Marblehead and Newark.
WASHINGTON, July 24.—The cruiser Marblehead has arrived at Coquimbó and the cruiser Newark has sailed from Mollendo for Callao. Both are en route to San Francisco.

NO CARLSBAD IN HIS.

DEWEY SCOFFS AT THE IDEA OF TAKING TREATMENT.

Says He is Nearly Sixty-two, but Feels Quite Young in Health and Spirits—Will Remain at Trieste Austria's Interior.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
TRIESTE, July 24.—[By Atlantic Cable.] A correspondent of the Associated Press today visited Admiral Dewey on board his flagship Olympia, and was cordially received, being requested to convey the admiral's thanks to the Associated Press. Admiral Dewey said that although he had received many invitations from Americans sojourning in Carlsbad, he had never intended going there.

"Look at me," said the admiral, "do I look like a sick man? Do I look as if I required Carlsbad treatment? I am quite healthy, and, though I will be 62 next December, I feel quite young in health and spirits, and from my humor you will notice that what I tell you is quite correct. I came to Trieste solely to recruit the health of my crew, they having passed seventeen months in the tropics without a break."

"My reception by the Austrian officials was most friendly and cordial, according to the usual etiquette. All reports of the Emperor's declining me a reception are unfounded. I expect to remain a week longer, and shall then proceed probably to Naples. Further details and plans have not been decided upon. The admiral will remain in Trieste until the last of August at Mediterranean ports. The last port touched in Europe will be Gibraltar, where we will only accompany the remains to Genoa, where we are expected in New York by October 1."

"I have accepted invitations to receptions by the citizens of New York and Washington, and will accordingly be in possession of a photograph of the sword of honor voted me by the American Congress."

Admiral Dewey absolutely refused to talk upon political subjects, and when asked what he thought regarding England, replied: "I have not thought anything yet."

The admiral this afternoon made another carriage excursion to the chateau of Miramar.

SEA AIR SUITS HIM.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 24.—A dispatch to the world from Trieste says: "Admiral Dewey has formally declined United States Minister Harris's invitation to visit several interesting points in the interior of Austria. At the dinner given by the Minister to the admiral last Friday evening, the latter was cordially invited to Vienna for a few days as the Minister's guest, after which he was to proceed to Budapest, where he was to be met by the Emperor Francis Joseph at Ischl, and then spend some time recuperating in the Austrian Tyrol."

"The admiral promised to take the invitation under consideration and give his answer at the dinner aboard the Olympia last night, at which he entertained the Minister and his staff, several of whom were present. The admiral announced the day that Admiral Dewey arrived here will be carried out, and he will expect to remain here two weeks, and will stay aboard the Olympia. I know Trieste well. This air is doing me a world of good already, and it will restore me, and my crew. From here we will go to Genoa."

"According to this, the admiral will sail for Genoa next week, Thursday, August 3."

ADMIRAL DEWEY ACCEPTS.
Hero of Manila Agrees to a Reception at New York.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
NEW YORK, July 24.—Mayor Van Wyck today received the following cablegram from Admiral Dewey: "ADMIRAL DEWEY, New York: Letters received and invitation accepted. Expect to arrive about October 1. Will cable definitely from Gibraltar. Have written. (Signed) 'DEWEY.'"

Admiral Dewey's cablegram is in response to an invitation from the Mayor, asking him to be the guest of the city upon his arrival in New York, and requesting him to express any desires he may have in connection with the reception.

The Committee on Land Parade and Reception for Admiral Dewey met today and decided to invite the Governor of each State to send a portion or the whole of the National Guard, to take part in the land parade.

BURIED IN A MINE.
SEVENTY PENNSYLVANIA MEN ENTOMBED NEAR BROWNVILLE.

Explosion of Gas and Fire-damp Proves Fatal to Four and Two Other Workmen are Injured. Pitiful Scene at the Mouth of the Shaft.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
BROWNVILLE (Pa.) July 24.—An explosion of gas and fire-damp occurred in the mine of the Redstone Coal and Oil Gas Company, at Grindstone, five miles from here, in which seventy men were entombed. Four men were killed and two injured. Two bodies were brought to the surface at noon, but owing to their blackened and mutilated condition they were not identified. The explosion occurred in entry No. 10, and the force was so great that eight men who had just descended into the shaft were knocked down. One of the men, who was in entry No. 10, was killed, and another man who had an ugly cut across the throat, but who went back, refusing to leave his mine until his father and brother could be gotten out.

There was intense excitement about the mine and the waits of wives, mothers and children who surrounded the mouth of the pit were plentiful to hear. The men who escaped were sent to the Connelville Hospital.

Of the men in the pit, when the explosion occurred, all but our were able to make their escape. It was several hours after the explosion before the extent of the disaster was known, as the mine had to be reached by a road which was several miles to return to the pit mouth. The explosion was caused by a fire in entry No. 10, which was caused by a man who was another entry, where it was ignited by an open lamp.

THE VICTIMS.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BROWNVILLE, July 24.—The dead are: JOHN YANKORA, STEPHEN KLEINBER, JOSEPH LUCAS, and GEORGE HUNICK. The injured, who were badly burned and who were taken to the hospital, are: others by the name of Frank and John Ublau.

Lived Long to Die of Grief.
BRISTOL (Pa.) July 24.—Lacking ten days of 100 years, a native-born Irishman, who lived in Bucks county, is dead here. He was born in Ireland, July 27, 1793, and came to this country early in life. There are living four of his children, ten grand-children and fifteen great-grandchildren. Grief over the recent death of a daughter is supposed to have hastened her end.

PHILPOTS ON TRIAL.

Clay County Pawns Attend Court and Insist on Going Armed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
LONDON (Ky.) July 24.—The trial of the Philpots for killing the Griffins on Little Goose Creek last Monday was called today at Manchester. The factions are on hand, the Philpots outnumbering the Griffins and Chadwells by one-third, and all are armed. They insist on remaining armed during the trial, and the trial will not be shot down while prisoners, as was Tom Baker. The trial is being held twenty-five miles from railway or telegraph or telephone communication.

FIRE IS HIS END.
INGERSOLL'S REMAINS WILL BE CREMATED TODAY.

Widow and Daughters of the Dead Agnostic, Believing as He Believed, Mourning Because His Remains Must Go So Soon.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
NEW YORK, July 24.—Simple funeral services for the body of Robert G. Ingersoll will be held at Walton, the Ingersoll summer home at Dobbs Ferry, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Dr. John Clark Ridpath, who was for many years a close personal friend of Col. Ingersoll, will read the eulogy delivered by Col. Ingersoll upon his brother, Carke. Dr. Ridpath will also read "My Creed," the latest poem written by Col. Ingersoll, and will afterward make a brief address. John R. Smith of Dobbs Ferry, a warm friend of the great orator and lecturer, will read other selections from Ingersoll's writings.

Early Wednesday morning the family will accompany the remains to Fresh Pond, L. I., where the body will be cremated. The ashes will be brought back to Dobbs Ferry, and they will be deposited in an urn which will be surrounded with the bust of Col. Ingersoll, to be made from the death mask made today by John Gray Bernard, the New York sculptor. The only music that will be heard tomorrow afternoon will be Seigfried's funeral march.

The body brought more than three hundred letters of condolence, and telegrams continue to pour in from all parts of the country. Among those who received today was one from Julia Marlowe, the actress, now in London, Eng. Another long one came from Rev. H. C. Barabue, August Thomas, Kate Salisbury, and Stuart Houston. Telegrams were received from the Brooklyn Philosophical Association, the American Secular Society and kindred organizations. A wreath was received from the Bohemian Free Thinkers, and many beautiful flowers filled the rooms of the lower part of the house.

The funeral will be private, and it is expected that only those who were personal friends of long standing will attend, and representatives of societies the deceased as did Col. Ingersoll.

Mrs. Ingersoll is so ill that she is confined to her bed. Members of the family say that illness is due to the prostration of grief and the ceaseless vigil that she has kept at the bier of her dead husband since his death.

Col. Ingersoll's daughters, Miss Maud and Mrs. Walton H. Brown, are both on the verge of prostration. The grief-stricken mother and daughters, who were repeatedly refused to discuss the final disposition of the remains, and it was not until the funeral arrangements were made by Mr. Farrell, brother-in-law and secretary of Col. Ingersoll, to complete the funeral arrangements.

When told this afternoon that services would be held tomorrow their only remarks were: "So soon? We cannot keep him with us a little longer."

M. Mailer Provost continued his argument yesterday on behalf of Venezuela before the Venezuelan Boundary Arbitration Commission.

DEPARTS TO HIS REST

BUSY LIFE OF LLOYD TEVIS SUDDENLY ENDED.

The Aged Capitalist Had Been Condemned to His Room With a Cold for a Fortnight, but Death Was Not Expected.

For Fifty Years a Self-made Man in California He Left a Fortune of Ten to Twenty Millions of Dollars.

Dr. Charles H. Blemer Becomes State Veterinarian—Decision Favorable to Bank Creditors.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lloyd Tevis died at 8 o'clock tonight at his home, No. 1316 Taylor street, after a fortnight's illness. Death came to him peacefully, and until an hour before the end he talked easily with his family, none of whom realized that he was to pass away so soon. In fact, they thought that he was on the way to recovery from the severe cold from which he had been suffering, but the weight of seventy-five years, almost all of it devoted to active business, had broken his vitality, and when he closed his eyes in sleep, shortly after 7 o'clock, there was no awakening.

Surrounding his bedside were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Gordon Blanding, and his three sons, Dr. Henry Tevis, Hugh Tevis and William S. Tevis. Another daughter, Mrs. Fred Sharon, is in Paris.

As multi-millionaire, mining magnate, lawyer, banker and owner of vast estates, Tevis was one of the most widely-known men and strongest influences of the West. Coming to California from Kentucky, half a century ago, he has left his mark on many of the greatest commercial enterprises of the Pacific Coast, and his name for forty years has been a power in financial circles.

The influence that he wielded in the community could be appreciated only by those who were familiar with the dominant interests of the Coast. Blessed with a temperament which enabled him to subordinate feeling to judgment, impulse to duty, prejudice to sense of justice, he was admirably qualified for the duties of finance. Perhaps no other man in this State was so successful in conducting negotiations of great magnitude, and illustrations of his remarkable talent in this direction may be found in the consolidation of the gas companies, water companies, railroad companies, telegraph companies, ice companies, and his settlement of the Sutter tunnel controversy after the principals had abandoned all hope of compromise.

In a dozen other lines he had proved himself a genius of management, and had built up a gigantic fortune, which is variously estimated at from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000. Only two months ago he received $500,000 share of the proceeds of the sale of the property of the Anaconda Mining Company in Montana, native of Kentucky, having been born in Shelbyville, in that State, March 20, 1824.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Lloyd Tevis, the well-known capitalist, died tonight at his residence in this city. The end was entirely unexpected, although he had been confined to his room with a severe cold for about a fortnight. He had not been robust for some time, and owing to advancing years, he was unable to stand the complications which followed his original indisposition.

Mr. Tevis was born in Kentucky seventy-five years ago. He came to this State for fifty years. He came to the Pacific Coast in search of gold in 1849, but fortune, which smiled on him so kindly in later years, had no encouragement for his earlier efforts. He was unsuccessful at prospecting, and was glad to accept a clerical position in the office of the Recorder at San Francisco. He received a training in the values of property, and by carefully saving and shrewdly investing his meager earnings, he soon had a few hundred dollars capital.

In 1850 he formed a partnership with James B. Haggis, which has ever since continued. This firm entered upon the career of already established prosperity, buying lots on a small scale at first and gradually increasing their operations until Haggis and Tevis owned immense tracts of land in the central counties of the State, including some of the richest lands in the San Joaquin Valley, and only one firm, that of Miller & Lux, had more cattle and sheep.

Mr. Tevis founded the Pacific Express Company and afterward became principally interested in the organization and development of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express. For many years he was president of that corporation, only retiring a few years ago because of his health and age, and still being the presumptive owner of much of the express company's stock.

Mr. Tevis was one of the wealthiest and best-known residents of San Francisco, and has been identified with the growth and development of the State in the days of the territorial pioneer. He was entirely a self-made man, and his wealth, variously estimated at from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000, was largely invested in a number of well-known corporations.

He leaves a widow, two daughters and three sons.

CONTRACT-LABOR EVILS.

Rabbi Levy of San Francisco Dismisses Alleged Hawaiian Methods.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The Examiner prints a detailed story of the alleged evils of the contract labor system in the Hawaiian Islands, as practiced by the coffee and sugar plantation owners, and quotes as its authority Rabbi M. S. Levy of this city, who has just returned from a tour of the islands. It says:

"Thirty-six Galicians, subjects of the Austrian empire, are now confined in Oahu prison, Honolulu, because they refused to comply longer with the onerous conditions imposed on them by their owners. They were convicted of 'deserting contract service,' and were sentenced to indefinite imprisonment. They can gain release only by buying their way out of prison or going back to the cane fields. Their story is told by Rabbi M. S. Levy of this city.

"When I was in Honolulu, Dr. Levy is quoted as saying, 'I had occasion to visit the Reef. There is a large number of Oahu, where all classes of offenders, murderers, felons and misdemeanors are confined at hard labor. While I was there my attention was drawn to thirty-seven Galicians, subjects of Austria, who were confined because they had refused to fulfill their contracts to labor for the Oahu plantation. They were dressed in stripes like the other prisoners. They were made to do the same labor in the quarries and on the roads. They were conveyed about the islands in a public vehicle, accompanied by armed guards and dressed in the prison garb. In fact, they were made to suffer all the indignities and pains of a felon under sentence."

IN RE CLOSED DOORS.

Supreme Court Asserts Rights of Courts and Bank Creditors.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—A decision of the Supreme Court handed down today, will be of no little importance to a number of depositors of the Fresno Loan and Savings Bank. A year or so ago this institution was directed by the Bank Commissioners to levy an assessment of $10 a share in order to carry on the business in a safe manner. The directors refused to do so, and the commissioners directed that the bank should go into liquidation. Demand was made by the directors, depositors for the money they had placed with the bank, which was refused, and suit was begun for the recovery of the deposits.

The defense was that, being in liquidation, the bank was not subject to suit by the depositors, and this was sustained by the lower court. The matter was then taken up by the Supreme Court. The latter tribunal sets up as the law that when a bank goes into liquidation, and while its doors may be closed to the creditors by the directors, still the directors cannot close the doors to the court; also that the right of action by the creditors is the same as though the bank had never been closed, and as though its business was progressing in the usual channels.

KNIFE BY HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Badoa's Alleged Lover Cowardly Deserts Her.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] STOCKTON, July 24.—Last evening between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock Ignatio Badoa, an Italian gardener, made a murderous assault upon his wife, who, in company with Peter Pagano and Antonio Luchetti, was walking along the road leading north of Goldwater Grove on the way to this city. The woman was stabbed ten or more times by the infuriated husband, who had evidently been lying in wait for her.

The attack was made by a knife, which was carried by the husband, and the three named were on their way toward Stockton when the assault was made. Badoa jumped upon his wife, and she, endeavoring to escape, fell, and while her companion was in error, he continued his assault. After the assault, Badoa started across the field, and the woman was assisted, along with her babe, to a neighboring farm.

It was after 1 o'clock when the police were formed of the affair, and then the police patrol wagon was sent after the unfortunate woman. At about 1 o'clock she was brought to the hospital. One wound, inflicted from the rear, penetrated the right lung, and it is considered the most dangerous of the many wounds upon her body. During the day she rested comparatively easy, and pneumonia sets in there is a fighting chance for her life. The woman is small of stature, weighing about 115 pounds, and is plucky to a degree seldom met with. She has been married not more than 20 years of age, and is many years younger than her husband.

Pagano, who disappeared at the time of the assault, could not be found until this afternoon, when he presented himself at the jail, but there was no charge against him mentioned in connection with his name. Badoa has not been seen since the assault, and it is believed that he succeeded in getting a good start out of the country.

OLD BUILDING BURNS.

Oakland Landmark, Former Orleans Hotel, Is Partially Destroyed.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] OAKLAND, July 24.—One of the oldest buildings in Oakland, erected in 1859, was partially destroyed by fire last night, and several persons narrowly escaped death in the flames. The fire was in a two-story frame structure at No. 416 Seventh street, which was the Orleans Hotel, was the best known landmark in Oakland in early days.

A hanging lamp in the hallway exploded, and before an alarm could be turned in, the building was in flames. The fire department responded promptly, however, and its efficient work prevented the adjoining building from becoming ignited. The loss is about $1500.

DRAWN TO DEATH.

Agnews Man Gets Tangled Up With His Horse.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN JOSE, July 24.—Clarence W. Burrell, of Edw. Burrell, a pioneer resident of Agnews, near the asylum, was killed this afternoon by being dragged to death by a horse.

Burrell was exercising the animal, and had one end of a twenty-inch rope wound round his arm, the other end being attached to the horse's neck. In some way he was thrown down, and, being unable to extricate himself from the rope, he was kicked and dragged to death. He was 35 years of age.

ADVERTISED HIS DEATH.

Berkeley Man Thought to Have Committed Suicide at Seattle.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] SEATTLE (Wash.), July 24.—A letter addressed "To whom it may concern," found on the water front last night, led to the belief that J. T. Campbell of Berkeley, Cal., ended his life by drowning himself. The letter, after stating that Campbell did not know how or when he came to this city, concluded as follows:

"I shall end my life on this earth by dropping my body in the bay, with the hope that it will not be discovered."

STATE VETERINARIAN.

Dr. Charles H. Blemer Appointed to the New Office.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SACRAMENTO, July 24.—Dr. Charles H. Blemer, who for a number of years has been connected with the United States Department of Agriculture, was today appointed State Veterinarian, under the law passed at the last session of the Legislature. The office pays $2000 a year and $500 expenses. The duty of the incumbent is to see that the quarantine laws against stock are enforced.

WHY HE WAS MISSING.

Saloon Man O'Gara of Oakland Killed Himself Last Thursday.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] OAKLAND, July 24.—The body of Charles D. O'Gara, who had been missing from his home, No. 371 Fifth street, since last Wednesday, was found this afternoon in an outbuilding at the rear of his saloon, corner of Franklin and Seventh streets, with a bullet hole through his temples. The saloon had remained closed since last Wednesday night, and Mrs. O'Gara was under the impression that her husband had left the city for a few days, as he said he had intended doing last Tuesday, when he returned from a week's outing in the country. An investigation today showed that the body, and a note explained the suicide, which had been committed last Thursday. Family and financial troubles were the cause.

Got a Lucky Rabbit.

REDDING, July 24.—J. and F. O. Jordan are announcing the discovery of a profitable gold deposit in their Rabbit quartz mine, situated on Mullen Mountain, two miles from Centerville. The mine has paid the expense of its development in the past year, and a few days ago the owners made a ledge from eight to twelve inches wide containing free quartz gold. The Jordan Bros. say that they have $100,000 now in sight. A single nugget, ten inches long and six wide, contains $300.

Suicide of a Martine.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Joseph Martinez, a ship painter, 24 years of age, committed suicide by shooting himself in the room at No. 1050 Howard street, by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. His brother was present at the time, but the cause was so quiet that he was not warned in time to prevent it. The suicide is said to have been a grandson of José Martinez, for whom the name Martinez was named. No cause is assigned for his deed.

Yosemite Valley Commissioners.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The Yosemite Valley Commissioners met today in the office of W. W. Foote and appointed John F. Stephens of Fresno, who is manager of the Canadian lines, guardian of the valley. Miles Wallace, the incumbent, will retire on September 1. The commissioners awarded the stage privileges of the valley to A. H. Washburn of the Yosemite Stage and Turnpike Company, for an annual consideration of $150.

Copper Mine Sold.

FRESNO, July 24.—John H. Hand has sold the Heskell copper mine, which is situated three miles from Folsom, to Henry B. Vergo, for $25,000. Vergo represents an English syndicate, which also owns the Copper King mine and other copper properties in Fresno county. It is reported that large smelters will be erected on a large scale.

Grand Canyon Keeps Its Dead.

ASHFORK (Ariz.), July 24.—The searching party in charge of W. W. Bass returned last night after a week's fruitless and dangerous search through the Grand Canyon of the Colorado for W. F. Russell of Syracuse, Neb., lost while attempting to cross the river at Bright Angel trail in a frail canvas boat, Sunday, July 9. No trace of Russell could be found.

Murder by Strangulation.

PORTLAND (Or.), July 24.—A Coroner's jury tonight brought in a verdict that Clara Fitch, whose dead body was found in Cycle Park last Thursday, was murdered by strangulation, and charged Frank McDaniel, who was with her when last seen, with the crime. The man still stoutly persists in his innocence.

Returned Dawson Miner Robbed.

SEATTLE (Wash.), July 24.—Henry Spears of San Francisco, who arrived here a few days ago from Dawson, complained to the police last night that he had been robbed of $100 in gold and bank notes. Two French women, Levia Mignon and Helene Martin, were arrested on suspicion of being the guilty parties.

Women's Board of Missions.

SANTA CRUZ, July 24.—The convention of the Christian Women's Board of Missions was held today at Garfield Park. The opening exercises were led by Mrs. Vina Durham and Miss Mary Durham. The State president, Mrs. Marshamley, presided. Reports were given by all the eleven auxiliaries.

Enlarge San Francisco Mint.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The United States mint in this city is to be repaired and enlarged, and for the purpose of paying the bills of the collector of Customs J. P. Jackson has been appointed temporary disbursing officer by the Treasury Department.

Must Answer for His Assault.

NAPA, July 24.—Charles Blanchard, who assaulted John Nuffer with a pocket-knife, was held to answer before the Superior Court by Justice Bradford this morning on a charge of assault to murder.

Youth Shot While Riding.

VISALIA, July 24.—Walter Crow, 19 years of age, is dangerously wounded as a result of an accidental shot while out riding. The bullet took effect in the left side of his body.

PRESENT FOR LAURIE.

Canadians to Give the Prime Minister a Handsome Reception.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] NEW YORK, July 24.—A special to the Tribune from Ottawa says that a plan has been arranged for the presentation to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister of Canada, of $100,000, $25,000 of which is to be handed to him in cash and $75,000 in securities which will bring him a handsome annual income. The Prime Minister's salary is $8000 a year, with a seasonal allowance of $1000, making a total of $9000.

FAIRBANKS RETICENT

HIGH JOINT COMMISSIONER MUM ON BOUNDARY DISPUTE.

Senator Visits the President, but Refuses to Discuss the Speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier or Talk on the Situation.

Washington Officials Have No Doubt That an Amicable Settlement Will Be Reached Between This Country and Canada.

Canadian Prime Minister is Firm in His Declaration Before the House of Commons—War Would Be a Disgrace.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Senator Fairbanks, chairman of the American division of the High Joint Commission, made a brief call on the President today, before starting for his home in Indiana. He declined to discuss the speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, or to remark upon the situation with reference to the boundary dispute. He confirmed the report already given out that there will be no meeting of the Joint Commission on August 2, saying that he and Sir Wilfrid Laurier had last Friday agreed upon a postponement for an indefinite period.

The Senator would not hazard a surmise as to when another meeting would be held. Direct negotiations respecting the Alaskan boundary are now in progress between Secretary Hay and Mr. Tower, the British charge here. The negotiations are directed toward an adjustment of the issue by amicable arrangement between the parties, though on somewhat different lines from those pursued during the spring and summer. The principal reason for the delay is that the principals are not without hope that success may attend their efforts, and there is arbitration yet in reserve, in case of failure on the present lines.

The officials here are now alarmed at the recent developments at Ottawa, feeling confident that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's utterance, in which he mentioned the word "war" as an alternative to arbitration, was given as a means of inducing the Canadian government to accept arbitration. The strong language attributed to Sir Charles Tupper is not credited to the Canadian government, and it is realized that great care must be taken to avoid in the future the utterances of members of an opposition party.

Inasmuch as the Canadian officials have laid stress upon the refusal of the United States to accept arbitration, the pending question, it may be proper to explain the reason for refusal, as pointed out today by a high official. In the first place our government, it is contended, is absolutely certain of the soundness of its claims in the matter of the boundary. That would seem to be a good reason for submitting the matter to arbitration, on the ground that a good cause had nothing to fear from fair arbitrators, but our government holds that arbitrators are almost all subject to the fatal weakness of compromise. In our case a compromise would amount to the loss of our whole contention, for once Canada is admitted to the Lynn canal, we would be deprived of the only weapon which we now possess for the protection of our miners going into the Klondike from extortion and German exultation. It was for this reason that Secretary Hay rejected the Canadian proposal to arbitrate, by the condition that in any case the Klondike should be bestowed upon Canada. Then, too, it is realized that the United States is not a party to the dispute, and that the officials of the United States are not so ready to arbitrate, if possible. This has caused a revival of the project to allow Canada to arbitrate, but to give some of the points on the Lynn canal, Dyea, Skagway or Pyramid Harbor, perhaps, while allowing the United States to retain the rest of the States, and this is one of the propositions that is now engaging attention.

It is realized that this plan would meet strong opposition from that element which favors no concession whatever to Canada, and such an arrangement would mean that miners might reasonably expect to benefit a good deal from the construction of the proposed railway, and that the United States port on the Lynn canal straight through to Dawson in the heart of the Klondike.

WAR NOT POSSIBLE.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that there will be neither war nor arbitration over the Alaskan boundary dispute. It will be settled by amicable agreement between the United States and Canada, and the making concessions in the question in return for concessions by the other in some other question. The boundary controversy might grow out of this relation between the pending questions.

DEMAND ON NICARAGUA.

Duties Illegally Collected from Americans Must Be Refunded.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] WASHINGTON, July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is understood that Secretary Hay has called upon the Nicaraguan government to refund to the American merchants the amount illegally collected for port and other duties during the recent revolutions at Bluefields.

It will be remembered that a number of American merchants were compelled to pay these twice by reason of officers representing the revolutionists and the Nicaraguan government being in control of different ports at the time. The merchants refused to pay the double payment, and a temporary adjustment was effected by the merchants paying the second tax under protest, with the understanding with this government that their rights would be protected and the overcharge refunded when a more satisfactory condition. As the result of careful investigation of all facts, the State Department has now requested the Nicaraguan government to refund the amount illegally collected from them by irresponsible officials.

The State Department has fully met the charges made by Nicaragua that the American merchants were involved in a revolution, insinuated to overthrow the government by showing that, although some of the Americans may have been in sympathy with the revolutionists, they did not take an active part. It is the expectation of officials that Nicaragua will now refund overpayments without further protest.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A complimentary dinner was tendered tonight to Prof. Edwin Markham of California, famous as the author of "The Man With the Hoe," by the Manhattan Single Tax Club at the Marlborough Hotel.

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended the remedy frequently, and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Burtis Baker, Book-walter, Ohio. Adv.

MURDERER OF GRIN KILLED.

WILMOT (O. T.), July 24.—"Chick" Davis, the negro murderer of William Grin, a respected farmer, was overtaken in a corn field early today and snapped both barrels of his gun at the pursuing party, and was then fired upon by them and instantly killed.

Mob of Enraged Men About to Execute One Man When News of Capture of Another is Received.

Posse of One Hundred Men Starts After Another Mischance Although He is Guarded by Many Sympathizers.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BIRMINGHAM (Ala.), July 24.—There will be a double lynching in West Bainbridge early tomorrow morning, unless something unforeseen occurs. Two more members of the band of negroes implicated in Sammie's confession are in the hands of a determined posse of whites. One of the captives is Charles Mack, the companion in crime of Louis Sammie, who was lynched yesterday. It was Sammie and Mack who outraged Mrs. Ogletree in the presence of her husband at Safford, one holding a pistol at the head of the husband to prevent interference. Mack was captured at Iron City by a white man of the name of Cardell. He tried to get his prisoner to jail and secrete him. A mob of several hundred country people gathered at Safford, and the whereabouts of his prisoner. He declined to tell them. A rope was quickly put about his neck and he was allowed ten minutes in which to give up the rapist or his life. He then told where the negro was. In a short while the crowd had Mack. While arrangements for the lynching were in progress a telegram from Iron City that another member of the gang had been captured was received. As it would require several hours to get the new prisoner to the scene, it was determined to postpone the execution of Mack until tomorrow, at which time it is proposed to have a double hanging. Before Sammie was lynched he confessed, and said Mack had robbed the Ogletrees, and both had outraged the woman. While they were committing the crimes, he said, six others, whose names he gave, were on the watch outside.

Mack is said to have confessed, corroborating Sammie's statement. The men, he said, were banded together for murder, robbery and rape. Five of the negroes named by Cardell are now dead, and every indication favors the death of two more tomorrow. The two who remain are expected to be hanged at Safford at 2:30 a.m., and the lynching will probably occur shortly afterward.

"Kid Jim," one of the Safford negroes, was located this afternoon in a cabin near Pinckard. He is guarded by about a hundred whites, who say they will defend him against any attack. A posse of one hundred men has already left Bainbridge this afternoon for the capture, and they say they will take "Kid Jim," dead or alive, guard or no guard.

NOT A CRACK TEAM.

MIKE MURPHY DISCOUNTS THE AMERICAN ATHLETES.

Well-known Trainer Declares That Tewksbury, Kraenzlein and McCracken of Pennsylvania Can Beat Them All.

Englishmen's Performances Don't Entitle Them to Be Considered Crackjacks in the Opinion of This Expert.

Peter Jackson Willing to Take on Jeffries or Sharkey—Two Good Games at Pittsburgh—Ball and Race Results.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mike Murphy, the well-known trainer of amateur athletes, declares that Tewksbury and Kraenzlein of the University of Pennsylvania could have made a better showing against the representatives of Oxford and Cambridge in London last Saturday than did the entire team from Yale and Harvard, and asserts that they, with McCracken of the same university, could easily have won the contests without any outside aid.

He says Kraenzlein could have won the broad jump, high jump and hurdle race, and Tewksbury could easily have scored in the hundred-yard race, for their records exceed the performances of the men who did win. He is also sure that Tewksbury could, with training, have captured the quarter-mile run, for he has equalled the time made by Davison, who won. With McCracken added, Murphy says victory would have been ridiculously easy, for McCracken easily beat Boal of Harvard, who took the hammer-throwing event. Murphy says that the American team was in no respect representative of amateur athletes in the United States, and that he would not want anything better than to meet the entire English team with the three men whom he names. He believes that when the Englishmen come here, they will be beaten.

EASTERN BASEBALL.

Williams and Beaumont Win Games for Pittsburgh's Nine.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) PITTSBURGH, July 24.—Pittsburgh won two games today by remarkable finishes. Williams was the star in the first game and Beaumont in the second. In the first, Leever gave four hits and three runs in the first inning and allowed no more until the ninth, when five hits and five runs were made. In Pittsburgh's half of the ninth inning, with Beaumont and McCarthy on bases, Williams made a long drive along the left field foul line, making a home run. When he came in he was showered with money by the fans.

The finish of the second game was almost identical with the first. Two runs were needed and two men were on bases when Beaumont came up. He made a beautiful home-run drive to center-field fence, but got credit for only a three-bagger, because the runs he brought in won the game. The attendance was 5200. Score: First game: Pittsburgh, 9; hits, 12; errors, 1.

Philadelphia, 8; hits, 9; errors, 1. Batteries—Leever and Schriver; Frazer, Bernhard and McFarland. Umpires—Swartwood and Hunt. Second game: Pittsburgh, 5; hits, 7; errors, 1.

Philadelphia, 4; hits, 10; errors, 2. Batteries—Hoffer and Bowerman; Magee and Duggan. Umpires—Swartwood and Hunt.

BALTIMORE-CHICAGO.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) CHICAGO, July 24.—The Orphans outbatted the Orioles today, and played much the cleaner fielding game, but McGinnity's standouts and Phil's three bases on balls gave the visitors the victory. The attendance was 800. Score: Chicago, 4; hits, 8; errors, 1.

Baltimore, 5; hits, 8; errors, 4. Batteries—Phile and Chance; McGinnity and Robinson. Umpires—O'Day and McGarr.

BOSTON-CINCINNATI.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) CINCINNATI, July 24.—The champions easily outplayed the Reds today and won their eighth game from the locals. Dwyer was forced to retire after the fifth. Hantz, the new man, again did good work in center field. Score: Cincinnati, 3; hits, 7; errors, 2.

Boston, 8; hits, 13; errors, 2. Batteries—Dwyer, Taylor and Peitz; Wood, Nichols and Clarke. Umpires—Manassau and Latham.

POSTPONED GAME.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) LOUISVILLE (Ky.), July 24.—Brooklyn-Louisville game postponed; wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—The St. Louis-New York game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

Attendance at Cleveland Small Because of Strikes.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) CLEVELAND (O.), July 24.—The grand circuit races began today under favorable weather and track conditions, but the attendance was somewhat disappointing, owing in the main to the street-railroad strike. Only two of the four races were finished, one being postponed entirely and the other going over until tomorrow. The race of most interest was the 2:14 trot. Altko was a hot favorite before the race began, but he only got one heat, and after hot finishes before Charley Herr, Bonna Tella and Altko, Chanty finally landed the race.

Maxmillan, the favorite, would have won the 2:16 pace with ease in the first three heats, but for an accident to his sulky in the first heat. The heat was finished on one wheel, and McCarty was thrown at the wire, but no other damage was done. It took the favorite until the fourth heat to recover himself, and then he went out, winning as he pleased.

The 2:27 pace was the most disappointing of all for the talent. Harry O. was picked as a sure winner, and was played vigorously at any price. Sphinx was too speedy, however, and he won the two heats, finished after exciting contests with Harry O. in the first and Orin B. in the second. The 2:19 trot went over until tomorrow.

Trotting, 2:14 class, purse $3000; Chanty won fourth, sixth and eighth heats; time 2:13½, 2:14½, 2:18. Charley Herr won first and second heats and was second, time 2:12½, 2:14½. Bonna Tella won fifth and seventh heats, and was third, time 2:13½, 2:14½. Altko won third heat in 2:10½. Dr. Spellman, Ruby, Prince of India, General and Lancis also started. Pacing, 2:16 class, purse $2500; Maxmillan won fourth, fifth and sixth heats; time 2:12½, 2:14, 2:10½. Gypsy Red won second and third heats; time 2:10½, 2:14. Star Hal won first heat in 2:09½, and was third, time 2:10½. Agan, Sweet Violet, Birdie Dickerson, Free Bond, Harry Harold, Gyp, Walnut, Hipless and The Private also started.

Pacing, 2:37 class, purse $1000; Sphinx S. won first and second heats; time 2:30½, 2:30½. Harry O., Orin B., Lockhart, Minnie Stars, George C. Easton and Darkie also started.

IN MID AND WEST.

Favorites Have a Bad Day at the Brighton Beach Track.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) NEW YORK, July 24.—There was little of interest in today's races at Brighton Beach, the track being muddy and a heavy mist falling all the time of the races. Maher made his first appearance since suburban day, having the mount on Sir Ladyship in the fourth race. She was a hot favorite and after leading to the last furlongs had to succumb to Lindemere, who was at 100 to 1 at the beginning of the betting. The Elector was a hot tip from the West for the fifth, and could do no better than second. Kirkwood was good in the mud, so he got the third race, the Suburban winner, Imp, running a bad last.

Selling, one mile: Bishop Reed won. Rare Perfume second, Strangest third; time 1:42-5.

Selling, five furlongs: Myner won. Joine second, Beveridge third; time 1:02. Fluke finished second, but was disqualified.

Mile and a sixteenth: Kirkwood won. Maine second, Tamer third; time 1:50. Five and a half furlongs: Lindemere won. Her Ladyship second, Ellen Daly third; time 1:49-5.

Steeplechase, about two miles: King T. won. Rheinhold second, Perion third; time 4:35.

PETER JACKSON'S CONFIDENCE.

Willing to Go Against Either Jeffries or Sharkey.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) VICTORIA (B. C.), July 24.—Peter Jackson, the pugilist, who is here from San Francisco, says he will issue a challenge to the victor in the Jeffries-Sharkey fight. He is confident of winning.

THE FISTIC ARENA.

Billy Rochford Beats "Young Corbett" of Denver.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) DENVER (Col.), July 24.—Billy Rochford of Chicago, who claims the world's bantam-weight championship through his fight with Ted Palmer of England some time ago, was given the decision over "Young Corbett" of Denver at the end of the twentieth round before the Colorado Athletic Association tonight. The bout was for the bantam-weight championship of the West. Rochford received the decision through his aggressive-

STRONG GOT WEAK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) NEW YORK, July 24.—At the Coney Island Sporting Club tonight, George Byers of Boston met Charles Street of Newark in a twenty-five-round "go." The referee stopped the fight in the tenth round, when Strong, who had fought eleven, was all but out.

GANS KEEPS HIS PURSE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) OCEAN CITY (Md.), July 24.—Joe Gans defeated Jack Dobbis of Boston tonight at the Seabright Casino in less than four rounds. Gans was to forfeit a purse if Dobbis stayed ten rounds.

Canadian Circuit's Fastest Time.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE

NEW WAR SECRETARY TO VISIT WHITE HOUSE.

With the President and Cabinet Members He Will Discuss Cuban and Philippine Affairs—Colonial Secretaryship May Be in Store for Him.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.) NEW YORK, July 24.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that Elihu Root, the new Secretary of War, will spend his first evening at the White House as the guest of President McKinley tonight. The President will spend the evening in discussing with Mr. Root and members of the Cabinet the important duties which will devolve upon the new head of the War Department.

It is not improbable that the near future will see Mr. Root in the position of Colonial Secretary, and a new man at the head of the War Department. The entire colonial policy will doubtless be gone over at this conference, but Cuba, contrary to expectations, will receive more attention than the Philippines. Of course Mr. Root will have a voice in all matters relating to the conduct of the war, but the President desires him to give particular attention to the many complicated legal questions involved in the change of the military to the civil control in the dependencies. The President will give close personal attention to the purely military work connected with the campaign in the Philippines.

The discussion of the future of Cuba will be given the attention of Mr. Root. The President considers the time has come for doing something in establishing civil and independent government in Cuba. He wants to have a policy well defined, so that he will be able to tell Congress, in his forthcoming annual address, what the future attitude of this country toward Cuba should be. He had an interview yesterday with Gen. Charles Garcia, son of the old general, in regard to holding conventions for the elections in Cuba, pertaining to the establishment of an independent form of government. Gen. Garcia came here to secure authority from the President for taking proper steps through the medium of Secretary Gage, for the establishment of an independent form of government, and thus prepare the way for complete political control of the island. The President believes the time has come to give the Cubans a trial at self-government, and he wanted Mr. Root to take hold of this matter and formulate plans whereby the Cubans will have an opportunity to establish some kind of government which the United States can recognize. It was pointed out that to have a knowledge of constitutional and international laws, which influenced the President in the determination of all the affairs pertaining to the colonies. Mr. Root will be expected to do the work of a Colonial Secretary, rather than a War Secretary, pending the establishment by Congress of the proposed new department. Probably in the future he may be transferred to the control of the new Department of New Islands, organized. Mr. Root, of course, will have much to do with the Philippine war, but the President will naturally depend more upon the military authorities substituting a civil for a military government in the Philippines, when the time comes for such action, than he will upon his assistants in connection with the military campaign.

ALGER RETURNS TO WASHINGTON.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) WASHINGTON, July 24.—Secretary Alger returned to Washington today, and was in his office early. Soon after his arrival, Assistant Secretary Melkies joined him, and they had a consultation regarding matters in the department, and the turning over of the department to Gen. Alger's successor, Assistant Secretary Melkies, who will be in charge until Mr. Root qualifies August 1. Secretary Alger expects to be absent in the interval.

AMERICAN WOMAN ARRESTED.

Mrs. Castle's Case Recalled by an Episode at Paris.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) PARIS, July 24.—[By Atlantic Cable.] A sensational case, which recalls that of Mrs. Castle of San Francisco in London, about two years ago, is agitating Americans here. A woman, who is described by some of the papers as Mrs. A., an American millionaire's well known in New York society, but who, the consulate here says, is Miss Hobbs, was being kept in the Louvre. Inspector Albanet, detective of the Louvre, followed her about the store and noticed that she picked up something at every counter she visited.

The woman was arrested outside the Louvre and taken to the Police Station. A policeman searched her rooms at the Hotel where she was staying, and a number of stolen objects were found. On paying for the property she was released.

BUSTLE OF PREPARATION.

Portmanteau Court-Martial of Dreyfus Starts Official France.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) RENNES, July 24.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Now that the date of the court-martial for the trial of Capt. Dreyfus has been fixed for August 7, there is greater activity in the preparations for that event. Telegraph and telephone lines are being constructed, and officers on furlough have been ordered to return to their posts by August 4. The gendarmes have been given a new countersign, and the Minister of War has issued instructions with regard to possible demonstrations.

Barriers will soon be erected in the vicinity of the building in which the court-martial will hold its sittings, partly to diverge traffic and partly with a view to the resistance of possible mobs.

PRESIDENT IS INVITED

To Attend Reception to Nebraska's Returned Volunteers.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) WASHINGTON, July 24.—Assistant Secretary Melkies today presented an invitation to the President to be present at the reception to be given to the Nebraska volunteers in Lincoln, September 13, upon their return from the Philippines. The President promised to accept in case he could make his contemplated western trip.

The President also received an invitation today from a delegation from Evansville, Ind., to visit that city in October, upon the proposed reunion of Union and Confederate soldiers in October. He replied that it would afford him pleasure to attend if possible to do so.

Japan Allied With China.

SHANGHAI, July 24.—The reports regarding a Japanese-Chinese alliance, which have been persistently denied for some time, have now assumed definite form, and are causing great excitement in certain circles.

Contributions to Dewey Fund.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—United States Treasurer Roberts, as treasurer of the Dewey home fund, today received through the San Francisco Examiner contributions amounting to $1515, making the total to date $15,815.

ATLIN GOLD NOTES.

Meeting of Miners Hears the Canadian Government Denounced.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) TACOMA, July 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Atlin and Bennett City advices to July 19 were received today. Last Tuesday the Merchants' Bank of Halifax shipped $100,000 in Atlin dust and nuggets to Seattle, in charge of William Botsford, the bank's inspector. The dust was shipped in two large boxes, each weighing 240 pounds gross, and constitutes the largest shipment of Atlin gold ever made. It came from Pine, Spruce, Boulder and Wright creeks. Spencer, manager of the Bank of Halifax for Atlin, estimates the district's output this season at $1,500,000. The Gold Commissioner Graham places it at from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000.

George Bounds of Tacoma is preparing to work eleven placer claims on McDonald Creek, twenty-five miles from Lake Bennett, by hydraulic working. McDonald Creek is the first placer stream tributary to Lake Bennett on which work has commenced.

A meeting of miners was held at Discovery City, Atlin, last Wednesday to hear the report of a delegation sent to Victoria to present miners' grievances. Delegate McKinnon unequivocally declared that the government had ended the delegates' term, that the open season should begin five days after they returned. Conservative miners are glad of this postponement, because it gives opportunity to settle litigation, and for high water in the creeks to subside.

Rev. Sinclair of the Church of England, at the miners' meeting that he blushed for shame at the government's breach of faith and contract in abrogating miners' licenses. The delegation announced that the Minister of Mines spoke favorably of enlarging British Columbia placer claims from 100 to 250 feet, and that larger claims would be allowed at Parliament's next meeting.

Conservative Americans declare the new judge is showing no favors to Canadians. Recently within one hour two Canadians were found guilty of jumping claims of Americans. One was fined $500, which he paid and left. The other was fined $1200, and sent to jail to work it out.

Hundreds of men are camped near Discovery City, waiting for the open season to begin so that they may secure work.

COLLECTIONS OF NUGGETS.

The Atlin Creeks Reported at Skagway to Be Productive.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SKAGWAY, July 19.—[Wired from Seattle July 24.] One hundred and thirty thousand dollars in gold dust came in on the evening train from Atlin. The shipment was made by the Atlin branch of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax. Botsford, traveling auditor of the bank, had with him an assortment of nuggets, the largest of which was over six ounces of pure gold.

Mr. Botsford, a well known prospector of Olympia, Wash., brought out a collection of handsome nuggets worth $1000.

The productiveness of the creeks, as reported in this shipment, is about as follows: Pine, Wright, Willow, Musket, Otter, McGee, Spruce, Blankenship. Miners on Wright had the largest individual haul, a 100-pound nugget. Dr. Russell of Puyallup is working twenty-five men on this latter creek, and taking out a very large amount of dust daily. Very rich quartz has recently been struck on this creek by Christopher of Portland.

Judge Irving is settling up disputed claims rapidly as possible, and in every case is showing a preference to the original locator, generally an American. His decisions give general satisfaction, and claims are being cleared owing to disputes, and hundreds of others are idle, because the owners do not care to go on them while the class season lasts. It is believed, however, that the season will be opened August 1, and that during the next two months the output will be a great surprise.

SAVED FOR SUICIDE.

Intimations of Fool Work Drive a Miner to Death.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) JUNEAU (Alaska), July 18.—[Wired from Seattle, July 24.] Antone Buluh, an Armenian miner, had been killed in a suicide. His suicide was the final act of an unusual experience.

SPECIAL SCHOOLS.

MAJ. PRATT SEEKS TO SOLVE THE INDIAN QUESTION.

Industrial Schools Should Be Established in Thickly-populated Centers Where the Redskins Must Amalgamate.

Miss Estelle Reel Says That as Long as Our Ancestors Practiced Witchcraft, not to Deride Indian Tradition.

F. H. Maude Gives a Stereoscopic Lecture Showing the Weird Rites of the Moqui Snake Dance. Other Notes.

The sessions of the Indian Service Institute are nearing a close, and while there seems to be no lack of interest in the department work, a marked falling off in the attendance at the general sessions held in Normal Hall was noticeable yesterday. The total number of registrations last night amounted to 304, and of this number of Indian educators probably about two-thirds have returned to their homes or dispersed to other points.

The most important action taken yesterday was upon a motion presented by Maj. R. H. Pratt of Carlisle, recommending in effect that the government establish ten industrial schools for the Indians. This said the major, who is a very practical man, was demanded by the previous motions, adopted by the institute and reported in these columns, recommending the abolition of the reservations and in-dorsing the public schools as the proper place for the Indian to acquire his civilization.

"It is never practical," said Maj. Pratt, "to make such positive statements as we have made during the progress of this convention, regarding the conduct of Indian affairs, and to leave the question without pointing the way in which the proposed changes can be successfully made. With the introductory remarks, the reading of the report, and, upon motion, laid upon the table until this morning.

The cooking class under the direction of Mrs. Emily L. Johnson, of Haskell Institute, Kansas, was one of the interesting features of the department work of the morning. Lessons in making salads and other delicacies were given, and the feminine heart, were given, and at the conclusion of the hour, lunch was served to the superintendents and matrons. This proved a very pleasant feature, and one and all seemed to enjoy this unique little spread.

The class in sewing and needlework, conducted by Mrs. J. M. Brown, of Phoenix, Ariz., has done some very interesting work in cutting and fitting to models demi-trains and other millinery contrivances. The Vienna tailoring system used in the Pratt Technical School has been adopted by the ladies as the one best suited to the peculiar nature of their work. Among the students, W. H. Close of New York has superintended the work taken in this system.

TEACHERS' SECTION.
The session of the teachers' section was prefaced by a short general exercise consisting of vocal and instrumental musical numbers. Miss Flora E. Harvey opened the section with prayer. Miss Estelle Carpenter of San Francisco gave a music lesson, outlining the duties of the teacher to the pupils, and the way calculated to bring the best results in teaching the Indian children. Among other things she said: "You are possibly familiar with the story of the poppy, so glorious in color, whose soft petals close at night and open in the daytime to greet the warm rays of the sun."

"Let us liken our children to golden poppies, whose minds are unfolded and opened by the influence of faithful and loving teachers. Each child has a great awakening power in the school. Through the power of song the teacher can get close to the little ones, and the little hearts will open to receive all that she has to give to them."

"Breath is the foundation upon which all song is built. We have a mood for every breath. It is in part the most important part of ourselves. We gain the inspiration for this mood from a power above us, and thus it is that our song is full of spiritual thoughts and does proper training improve and develop the voice of the child, but the affections which make for character are stirred and strengthened by song."

GEOGRAPHY FOR INDIANS.

A paper on "Geography for the Indian School," by Miss Estelle Reel, National Superintendent of Indian Schools, Washington, D. C., was read by Mrs. Jesse W. Moore, of the Carlisle Indian School, Pennsylvania, chairman of the "history and geography" department of the teachers' section. Miss Reel's paper abounded in interesting and useful thoughts on the psychological side of the Indian nature, which showed that the writer was in close touch with the noble red man and his affairs. It was in part as follows:

"All races of men began life with very little understanding of the forces everywhere observable in nature. The Semite race believed that the sun, moon and stars were deities, and that the sun was a Supreme Ruler of the Universe, yet were ignorant of nature's laws, and in consequence they held many strange and superstitious beliefs as there were phenomena. "It sometimes happened that strange appearances were ascribed to human agency, especially such appearances as lacked the element of beneficence, and the agent might be any one against whom the victim had some grievance. These beliefs were retained long after nature-worship was given up. The practice of witchcraft growing out of these beliefs we recall with shame and, because of them, we soften our judgment against our brethren of the totem and pueblo. The Moqui sun-dance, observed at Christmastide, belongs to the same order of fetish worship, and the ghost-dance at Walker Lake is, in the main, a repetition of an illusionation from the same source."

"I think that if we take the history of any of those peoples who are called the western world, we shall find from the Asiatic we will find in their earliest records a mythology strikingly like that given in our ethnological reports. The question arises, how have these records arisen from dense superstition? What we claim is a true belief in God? What have been the beliefs by which they have attained their present civilization? To answer this question we must turn to a history of the progress of human knowledge."

"We have in what has been learned in regard to the earth, its evolutionary changes, the discovery of the continuity of forces and in the vast number of facts that are grouped under the name geography, all that every science has given us from the simplest fact about plant-growth to the movements of the solar system; this, all will admit, has been a lever of immense power in the elevation of our race. "The condition that we, as Indian teachers, have to contend with is, that the round world, not truth to the Indian, whatever his age, and each generation is sworn to maintain the fairy tale of their tradition as the truth. Teaching is called a psychological process, an endeavor to help a struggling soul to realize itself. But the struggling soul must first realize its environment with some degree of truth, and through its environment, a sense of the spiritual fatherhood of God."

After outlining the practical usefulness of geography in broadening the ideas of the Indian and recommending the use of charts and maps in the school room, the paper continued: "If you would learn in what direction the nation is moving, see in what direction the schools are going. It is not possible to measure the power of well-directed education. Making beginning as you have put a sum at compound interest."

"Let us then, look earnestly at this matter of what we ought to do with our Indian pupils, and let us try to start right. We must begin with simple, homely things and work by simple methods and above all, with that love that overcomes all things."

"John Eliot, who was the first of the Massachusetts colonists to heed the call given in the device of the colony seal, an Indian uttering the words, 'Come over and help us,' opened schools for the Indians and wrote books from which he taught the children, encouraging them by giving them apples and biscuits, and it is written that, 'by this winning practice, the children were induced, with delight, to get into their memories the principles of the Christian religion.'"

"In our beautiful National Library at Washington are eight piers upon the entablature of which stand symbolic figures of colossal size. One of these figures represents Science holding in one hand a globe, in the other a mirror. The inscription above the figure, selected by President Eliot of Harvard, from the nineteenth psalm, 'The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament sheweth his handiwork.'"

"I suppose the thoughts of those whose awakes are vastly different in the mind of the child from what they are in the mind of the mature Christian astronomer. Now the Indian child is as the child's mind, or the mind of an era when science was in its infancy. 'Owner of the earth and the solar year,' he does not know it, nor will he, until he has been taught by the hand of man, meaning that it has for us, you who have in mind the education of the Indian, need the broadest education that you can possibly secure."

Miss Flora E. Harvey of the Phoenix Industrial School, gave a talk to the teachers on some methods in Indian teaching, and Mrs. P. C. H. Paul of the Illinois Training School for Nurses, spoke on "The Proper Treatment of Some of the Organs of Special Sense," which closed the exercises of the morning.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The general session of the afternoon was presided over by J. M. Brown of Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kan. Mrs. Mary Orr and Mrs. E. R. Hillis gave a piano duet, and Miss Anna M. Berry of C. C. C. gave a charming little selection, which called forth an encore.

J. M. Brown led the discussion on the first topic of the afternoon, being the superintendent's report on the progress of the Indian schools. He was, "Can the highest system and the greatest success be secured through a system of industrial schools, which ignores the superintendent's report, and such qualities as the employees have developed in other fields?" Mr. Brown presented the two systems that have been used in the Indian school system, which he designated as the spoils system and the merit system, pointing out the defects arising from a combination of the two. The teachers were classified and the superintendents were obliged to take teachers who would not teach and laborers who would not labor.

Superintendent W. B. Bacon of Arizona thought it was an undeniable fact that the Indian service system had been improved by the civil service regulations. That the superintendent was not ignored, on account of the term of probation to which the prospective teacher was subjected, the time of this probation he thought should be some certain fixed time, and the members of Congress kept their hands off and both the superintendent and the agent took more interest in their work than they do at present.

TREASON, BUT TRUE.
"I do believe in the civil service, as preached at the present, for the reason that it has been my experience that it generally takes those who are not wanted elsewhere. This is a hard thing to say in this presence, but I believe that a fair and open discussion of the subject is a right thing to do. I would rather have the judgment of the average Congressman or of a good school man, than that of the Indian Service Commission. This is treason, I know, but I speak from experience."

"At one time I wanted a vocal teacher for the Carlisle school. I applied to the commission at Washington in July, and I did not get my teacher until late in December. There were twenty-two teachers, and they were to be divided into two separate advertisements made by the commission, and of these two, only the one who came to me was selected. I had a right to know the truth to light. I would rather have the judgment of the average Congressman or of a good school man, than that of the Indian Service Commission. This is treason, I know, but I speak from experience."

"I hope necessity will force the government to select Indian school employees that in use at present. It is only because of my experience that I do not believe that a fair and open discussion of the subject is a right thing to do. I would rather have the judgment of the average Congressman or of a good school man, than that of the Indian Service Commission. This is treason, I know, but I speak from experience."

From a G. A. R. Man

"My attack of Miller's Asthma was very bad. I was afraid to lie down at night for fear of smothering. I couldn't get my breath. No matter if all the windows in the house were open, it seemed as if there was no air and that I must surely smother to death. Mr. W. B. Long, of this city, called my attention to Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I bought a bottle and tried it. It cured me completely. My recovery is permanent, too, for ever since I have not had the slightest return of my old enemy. I consider Acker's English Remedy the best medicine in the world for hacking coughs, asthma and bronchitis. It completely masters those stubborn diseases that many people wrongly suppose to be incurable. It suffers with just a single bottle, it will prove every word I have said, and more too." (Signed.)

JOHN D. ELLIOTT, Commander John Megarath Post No. 132, Portland, Mich.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 2d, 3d, 4d, 6d, 9d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. DR. ACKER'S ENGLISH REMEDY, SALE & SON DRUG CO., 320 S. Spring St., J. H. TROUT, 6th and Broadway, C. H. LEWIS, 4th and Broadway, DEAN'S DRUG STORE, 4th and Main Sts., THOMAS DRUG CO., Spring and Temple Sts., THE WESTERN DRUG CO., Main St.

such schools should be bonded." After a lengthy debate this resolution was passed.

Maj. Pratt then presented the resolution referred to above, which read as follows: "Whereas the local prejudice on the part of the whites against the Indians, in the vicinity of every tribe and reservation, is such as to make attendance of the Indian youth in the public schools there impracticable, and whereas, the ignorant prejudice and whimsical nature of the parents also militates against such attendance; and whereas, there is no prejudice preventing attendance of Indian youth, in such public schools as are remote from the tribes and reservations; and whereas, it is hereby suggested that (1) such schools be tentatively established at once, each with a capacity of caring for about ten pupils, at the expense of the United States; and (2) that each such school shall carry 300 additional pupils, placed out in families where they can earn their own support."

A party of about thirty, headed by Maj. Pratt, made a call, after the session adjourned, on Mrs. John C. Freeman, of the Carlisle Indian School, at her home on West Twenty-eighth street. Maj. Pratt was well acquainted with the family, and when he arrived, he was surprised to find that the widow of his old friend was living in this city. The returned this time, he did not forget his former call, and he was permitted to renew it, with a body of friends from the convention. An invitation was accordingly extended, and the party remained for a half-hour among the flowers and orange trees that surround the home of Mrs. Freeman.

THE SNAKE DANCE.
A short musical programme preceded the stereoscopic lecture given in the general assembly hall at the Normal School last evening. Superintendent H. E. Wilson of Arizona, presided. Miss Stella Robbins of the Haskell Institute, Kan., sang "The Holy City" by request, and responded to the piano accompaniment. The next number was a song, "The Snake Dance," sung very feelingly. Mrs. Grace Millmore Stivers sang "When I Gaze Upon the Lilies," and was followed by the piano accompaniment. Gertrude Ross acted as accompanist.

The pictures shown by F. H. Maude in illustrating his lecture were very good, and produced a strong impression on the minds of the audience. ## THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, July 24.—(Reported by George E. Franklin, Local Forecast Official.) At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 29.7; at 5 p.m., 29.8. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 60 deg. and 68 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 94 per cent.; 5 p.m., 71 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., east, velocity 2 miles; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 5 miles. Maximum temperature, 77 deg.; minimum temperature, 59 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

DRY BULB TEMPERATURE.

Los Angeles ..... 60 San Francisco ..... 52
San Diego ..... 64 Portland ..... 56

Weather Conditions.—A trough of low pressure, the usual summer condition, extends from Southern Arizona through the interior of California to the Upper Sacramento Valley, with increasing gradient toward the coast. These conditions are causing cloudy weather with occasional fog in the coast districts and clear weather in the interior. Clear weather with moderate temperature prevails on the North Pacific Slope. Showers have fallen in Arizona and heavy rain has fallen at Dodge City since last report.

Forecast.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Cloudy tonight, with fog in low portions and toward coast, becoming clear by Tuesday noon; moderately warm; westerly winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Weather conditions and general forecast: The following maximum temperatures were reported from stations in California today:
Eureka ..... 58 San Luis Obispo ..... 78
Fresno ..... 106 San Diego ..... 68
Los Angeles ..... 77 Sacramento ..... 90
Red Bluff ..... 104 Yuma ..... 106

San Francisco data: Maximum temperature, 59 deg.; minimum, 50 deg.; mean, 54 deg.

A depression central this morning over Eastern California now overlies the greater portion of the country west of the Rocky Mountains. Light showers have fallen in the Sierras and also in the mountains of Utah and Arizona. The temperature has increased decidedly over Northern Utah, Idaho and Northern Nevada. Throughout California the temperatures are generally below the normal. In the vicinity of San Francisco there is a vertical thermal gradient of 1 deg. rise for every hundred feet of elevation.

Forecast made at San Francisco for thirty hours, ending at midnight, July 25:

Northern California: Clear and threatening weather Tuesday; cooler in the northern portion of the Sacramento Valley; probably light showers early Tuesday morning in eastern portion; southerly winds in the valleys; westerly winds, with fog on the coast.

Southern California: Cloudy Tuesday, with showers in the mountains; light southwest-erly wind.

Arizona: Cloudy Tuesday, with showers in northern portion.

San Francisco and vicinity: Cloudy Tuesday, possibly with sprinkles in the morning; light southerly, changing to fresh westerly winds.

ALL ALONG THE LINE

A persistent cry is still coming up from Anaheim for harvest hands. The need is so pressing that employers were forced to call in coolie labor. It is respectfully suggested to the men who periodically inflame the working element with the torch of "cheap labor" that they now cast themselves into the breach and head off the cheap labor by drumming up their constituents.

Orange county is looking toward tomorrow Mauna Loa and crying: "Do it some more!" The reason is that many artesian wells in that county which had gone dry for a long time, are now giving forth great streams of water. The timid visitor who dreads the slight shocks felt here would be shocked indeed if he or she could see the thousands of men who would be employed at full-grown shock, if it would insure water for irrigation.

The Times San Pedro correspondence says: "There is a great scarcity of fish all along the coast, and some of the dealers have shown a good deal of enterprise in the effort to keep their customers supplied." This can be accounted for by the seismic disturbances of the past week, during which fish are said to seek deep water. One should not lose sight of the pleasing fact, however, that while the fish are off shore in deep water, the able-bodied prevaricators are powerless to afflict a long-suffering people. The moral here is that even earthquakes have their uses, but it is somewhat discouraging to note that nothing short of an earthquake can bark the conscience of the modern fish Ananias.

Pomona is in the band wagon. The local band holds forth to the up-town element, while the Ontario wind apellers distort the welkin in and about the Pacific Hotel. The local musicians have a fine new band stand and as it is in the neighborhood of the church's searching strains of "There is a Happy Land" float down street and carom on the sharp corners of "Ebony Nigga Had a Lady But Me," as it wells up from the Ontario's horns with promiscuous effect. Later on the artist who blows the Salvation Army bass drum will enter the lists, and this will enable the people to cry out, as the old Scotch woman did when she heard fourteen sets of bagpipes in action at one time: "Och, but I thoct I wass in heaven!"

Two bicyclists crashed their wheels together at Pasadena, one of them being a woman. She was on the right side of the street, and made the man pay for repairs to her wheel. The Los Angeles method is something as follows: He is riding in on Main street, on the right side, she is driving out, but on her left side. Her course was triangular, and at Tenth street she crowded him into a hitching post over which he turned a foot spring and slid ten feet along the gutter. He arose with his mouth full of mud and Volapuk, his body full of pains, and his soul full of wrath. She eyed him with disdain. He said, with much feeling: "My dear woman, you are on the wrong side of the street." "Dear nuthin," she snorted, "guess you don't own this street," and she drove on. He emptied his mouth of mud, and—curtain.

Events in Society.

[Communications intended for the society columns of The Times must be signed, and must be written on only one side of the page. Anonymous announcements of society events, personals, etc., and those which, because they are written on both sides of a page, have to be rewritten, will receive no attention.]

Miss Clara J. Hamilton and Andrew T. Garey, Jr., were married Thursday evening, July 20, at the home of the bride, No. 1922 South Los Angeles street. Rev. Will E. Knight officiated. The house was decorated with pink and white carnations. The bride stood beneath a canopy of asparagus plumosus. A wedding supper was served at the conclusion of the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Garey will reside at No. 731 East Pico street.

A surprise party was given Mrs. H. Quackenbush Thursday afternoon by members of Columbia Rebekah Lodge. Those present were Mmes. S. Frazer, C. Deeds, H. Smith, J. H. Kimminger, W. M. Dorr, J. A. Ritter, F. S. Walker, A. Donnelly, M. T. Herzog, M. Landsberg, G. E. Loomis, M. Patton, M. Kohl, M. A. Marshall, F. J. Waller, Grebe, L. Lefman, A. Holst, J. Watter, R. A. Henry, E. F. O'Neill, R. E. Sturgeon, J. Wilcutt, Misses Daisy Walter, Pearl Herzog, Messrs. Jack Harrington, Harry Belcher, Fred Franco, Otto Newcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison J. Wallace entertained Thursday evening in honor of the first anniversary of their wedding, with progressive whist. The lady's prize was won by Mrs. C. C. Byrne, and the gentlemen's by A. Whiting. The rooms were effectively decorated with pink and white. In the dining-room light refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Travers, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Byrne, Misses Lydia Kellam, Grace Knapp, Alice Moore, Ethel Belcher, Messrs. Jack Harrington, Harry Belcher, Fred Franco, Otto Newcomb.

A moonlight trolley party was given by the members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Presbyterian Church to Santa Monica Friday evening. The party included Mrs. Anna Tuthill, Gladys Tuthill, McArthur, Marquis, Sadie Tuthill, Wheeler, Gee, Quinn, Mabel Brobst, Blanche Groet, Smith, Jordan Harris, Milligan, Williams, Smith, Messrs. Chambers, Harris, Bidwell, Day, Cowan, Mootie, French, Dewey, Smith, Menzies, Prof. Brown, Dr. McArthur.

Miss Josephine Ethel Marmont, daughter of Mrs. Florence Marmont, and Edward Percival Draeske were married Monday morning at St. Vibiana's Cathedral. Mr. and Mrs. Draeske left later in the day for Catalina, where they will spend a week, after which they will go direct to Denver, where they will be at home after August 15, at No. 1204 Race street.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.
Mrs. J. Walter Bridge and her little daughter are spending the summer at the Bohème Villa on Ocean avenue, Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Driscoll have returned from the East and are at Bellevue Terrace for the summer. Mrs. Driscoll will be at home Tuesday.

W. J. Patterson has returned from a three months' stay in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. C. Cohn and Miss Cohn of Santa Monica have gone to Santa Monica for the season.

Mrs. E. L. Skelton of Evanston, Ill., is spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Brown, at No. 2820 Budlong avenue.

Miss Dorothy Hodson of Kansas City, Mo., is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Hodson at their home, No. 818 Mozart street, East Los Angeles.

The engagement is announced of Miss Maggie Strevell of Winnipeg, Can., and Robert L. Grierson of this city. Mrs. A. K. Brauer and child have gone to Fort Bragg to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cunningham have returned from their outing to Shasta Mountains.

Miss Edith Fairchild left last night on the Owl for San Francisco.

Mrs. Bella Lovett and C. H. Ritchie were married Saturday, July 22. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will spend a few weeks at Catalina Island.

Mrs. Everett S. Connings and her two sons, Arthur and Herbert Connings, are occupying a cottage at Redondo for a month.

Mischievous Boy Jailed.
Frank Shinski, a mischievous urchin, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Henderson on a warrant charging him with malicious mischief. Shinski and several other boys have been tormenting Mrs. Bridget O'Dea, a widow who lives at No. 450 East Fifteenth street, by throwing over-ripe fruit against her house. Mrs. O'Dea has on different occasions had trouble with the boys living in her neighborhood. She owns considerable orchard property and the boys not only steal her fruit, but use it as ammunition with which to bombard her house. The arrest of young Shinski is due to his desire to make an example of one of the gang of youthful vandals in the hope that it will have a deterrent effect on the rest.

BUSINESS TRAINING.

COMMERCIAL STUDIES FOR NIGHT SCHOOL PUPILS.

Greater Freedom in Election Atforded High School Commercial Department Students—Course in Citizenship.

Board of Education Sets Tuesday for Conference on Introduction of Sewing and Cooking into Grammar Grades.

Superintendent Foshy Offered a Vacation—Changes in Teaching Force and Improvements of Buildings Approved.

The Board of Education took an important step last night toward increasing the usefulness of the night school for working boys and girls by ordering the addition of a commercial course to the curriculum. This will probably necessitate the appointment of one new teacher.

Important changes were also made in the course of study of the High School commercial department, tending to broaden freedom of election. Ste-nography and typewriting were made optional in the A9 with physical education, a modern language in the B10 optional with algebra, American history and civics optional in the A10, with algebra, chemistry optional in the B11 with physics or modern language, and typewriting for two periods a week introduced into the B9.

Another forward step was taken by the establishment of a course in the commercial department in citizenship.
The B11 students will receive three hours' credit weekly for practice in debates, public speaking, and parliamentary drill.

There was a lively debate over the recommendation of the Committee on High School, Library, and Course of Study that a course in current history be introduced into the High School.
A number of members spoke in favor of the idea, but were doubtful as to whether the course would be a wise addition at present, inasmuch as it would probably necessitate the employment of a special teacher. The recommendation was laid on the table to be discussed after more light has been procured upon it, whether or whether the proposed course is to open the eyes of the students to the history that is being made day by day and to stimulate intelligent study of the world's progress.

The board has resolved to introduce cooking and sewing into the schools at once, though no formal resolution was passed. The effect has yet been passed. It was resolved last night to meet in special session Tuesday, August 1, to discuss the organization of the work in those two lines. One teacher of each subject will probably be employed, and one kitchen fitted up.

Sentiment has not yet crystallized in the minds of the board as to whether it will be best at present to employ four or five teachers of sewing and have all the instruction in that subject given by experts, or whether to have only one expert, employed as a supervisor, and require the grade teachers to instruct the children, under the direction of the supervisor, as is done at present in drawing, which is approved. The weight of opinion is strongly in favor of the former method, the chief reason for hesitation in adopting it being the expense, which is not insignificant. It is realized that though most of the teachers know how to mend their clothes, only an infinitesimal proportion of them have had any systematic training in sewing, and it would be extremely difficult for them to teach the subject with the system and thoroughness which are needed for satisfactory results.

The board has been greatly impressed by the ability shown by some of the applicants for places as sewing and cooking teachers who addressed the board at a special meeting last week, giving their advice concerning the organization of work in domestic economy. Besides the expert, employed as a supervisor, before the board at that time, there is one other applicant for a position as sewing teacher—Miss Susanna E. Sir-well, of Minneapolis. Miss Sirwell has had valuable experience and comes highly recommended.

FOSHY COMMENDED.
Superintendent Foshy presented a report commending the work of the city teachers in entertaining the N.E.A.
as follows:

"I am very glad to report to your honorable body the excellent work done by the corps of teachers of this city during the recent meeting of the National Educational Association.
Great credit is due to these teachers, who worked so unselfishly in all lines to make the visitors comfortable, and to carry out the idea which has been given by California that we are a hospitality people. I think that the school department of this city has reason to be proud of the work done by the teachers, both during the recent meeting, but in preparing for the exhibit, which reflected great credit upon our school system."

In preparing the annual report for the State department, we find the total number of census children to be 27,428.
We find the average daily attendance to be 14,222; number of seatings, 18,682; total number of pupils enrolled during the year 1988. There were fifty-eight teachers with high school certificates, 318 grammar school certificates, 81 primary certificates, and 19 primary certificates. There are 104 grammar schools, and 289 primary and kindergarten schools.
Of the 488 teachers, 466 subscribe for some educational journal; many of them subscribe for and read several.
Mr. Wincup addressed the board briefly, commending Superintendent Foshy for his services to the school department, and moved that inasmuch as the superintendent has been greatly burdened with work of late, in connection with the ending of the school year, and, still more wearing, the N.
E.A. Convention, that he be granted a leave of absence of ten days. The board granted the leave, and Mr.
Foshy said that he had school matters in hand, which would make it impossible for him to take his leave of absence. He promptly ordered that the leave should begin at Mr. Foshy's own convenience.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS.
Building Superintendent Hogan recommended that new closets be built at the University school that the pavilion, which is now raised three feet from the ground, and located at one side, be moved back of the building, and let down to the proper height, at a cost of $20; that connections be made with the city water, if possible, in place of the windmill, and the windmill be sold;
that new interior steps be placed in the Alpine street school at a cost not to exceed $8; that the outside front steps at the Eighth street school be made new at a cost of not to exceed $6; and that as had been recommended in the annual report of the Building Superintendent, blackboards be placed at a total cost of $45.50 in the following-named schools: Swain, Chestnut, Gates, Hayes, Castelar, Sand, Temple, Casco,
Union, Fremont, Spring, Eighth, Tenth,
Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Thirtieth, West
Vernon, Vernon, Santa Fe, Staunton, San Pedro, Seventh, Ninth, Boyd.

A MORE successful remedy has been found for nervous weakness, such as nervous debility, loss of vitality and all other results of excessive use of stimulants. It is a simple, natural remedy, cures any case of the difficulty, never fails to restore to full natural strength and vigor. The doctor who made this wonderful discovery insists to let every man know about it. He will, therefore, send the receipt giving the fractional ingredients to be used, so that all men at a trifling expense can cure themselves. He sends the receipt free, and all the reader need do is to send a small address label to W. Knapp, D. D., 182 Hildie, Detroit, Mich., requesting the free receipt as portrayed in this paper. It is a generous offer, and all men ought to be glad to have such an opportunity.
